Prominent Pioneer Dies.

Guthrie, May 11.-Announcement is made from Ringwood of the death of Captain J. R. Ellinwood, who made the original survey of the Santa Fe railroad from Atchison, Kas., to Santa Fe, N. M., and established many of the towns along that line.

The town of Ellinwood, Kas., was named for him. He also surveyed the Santa Fe line south through Wichita which town he surveyed and located, and was later connected with the engineering departments of the Rock Island and Frisco.

At one time he was the owner of a fine home near Topeka but financial difficulties overtook him.

He came to Oklahoma several years ago and had been living quietly on a farm in Major county. He was postmaster at Walthall until that officer was discontinued.

London, May 9.—It was stated in the house of commons the other day that the revenue out of whiskey drinking has been the mainstay of education. The budget and the increased sobriety of the people have caused a deficit of nearly $15,000,000 on the ordinary revenue from whis-

CURIOUS CUSTOMS OF ASSAM

Is That Known as Doing "Genna."

Among the inhabitants of Assam there are curious customs described by a recent traveler: "The local nobleman who had consented to help the cook in return for his food plus pay Over Ada National Bank. had complained in the morning of a stomach ache, the result, probably, of a too liberal diet at my expense: I had dosed him with strong ginger, but evening found him still in pain, and he refused to take more. He expected one dose to effect a magic cure, and if it did not he considered the medicine was not worth taking a second time. An evil spirit had got hold of him, he confided to me, and the only gure remedy was to propitiate it by sacrificing a white fowl. To do so with full ceremonial three whole days apart from the world were necessary, and therefore he had to tender his resignation.

"He came to see me a few weeks Office of City Attorney at City Hall ago in Sadiya, and was much hurt at my mildly suggesting that 'the evil one' had been a surfeit of pork. The custom of shutting one's self off from contact with one's fellows is common all along this frontier, on such occasions as a birth, a death, sickness Office in Rollow Bldg. Bachelor Could Not Save Rug and Be in Time for the Theater-

A theater party waited half an hour the other evening for one belated individual, who arrived breathless and profusely apologetic. Apologies entailed explanations, and explanations revealed some of the exigencies, as well the humor, of bachelor makeshifts.

In this case the gentleman who was tardy found it imperative to economize space. Necessity made his opera hat share a closet shelf with the Tarragon vinegar and the olive oil used at occasional evening spreads. Over Citizens National Bank, Ada. Ob Ope could multiply proverbs in telling the tale, for in his haste to be on time the vinegar and the oil came down unexpectedly with the opera hat, and deposited their contents upon his latest acquisition, the Shervan rug he had just treated himself to.

It was ruin the rug or be late to the party, so, up came the rug, on went the water in the bathtub, and to scrubbing fell he. The rug was saved, and the theater party enjoyed the laugh they had over the tale.

The following report of Sorosis was presented at the Fourth District Federation of Womens' Clubs by Mrs. J. F. McKeel of this city:

To the club women of the Fourth District, Greeting from Sorosis of MANY KINDS OF PANCAKES

Recognizing the value of diversified interests in any organization, Sorosis has broadened its scope of usefulness by becoming a departmental club with an unlimited membership. The following departments are now fully organized: Literature, Art, Civics, 'Music, History, and Household Economics.

Apart from the lesson learned in their transcendant tragedy of human passions, many of the social customs of the Shakesperean age have been exemplified from time to time by our members. We recognize this is, one method by which we may create a greater interpretive interest in Shakesperean literature. In this case the gentleman who was tardy found it imperative to economize space. Necessity made his opera hat share a closet shelf with the Tarragon vinegar and the olive oil used at occasional evening spreads. One could multiply proverbs in tell-ing the tale, for in his haste to be on time the vinegar and the oil came down unexpectedly with the opera hat, and deposited their contents upon his latest acquisition, the Shervan rug he had just treated himself to.

It was ruin the rug or be late to the party, so, up came the rug, on went the water in the bathtub, and to scrubbing fell he. The rug was saved, and the theseer party enjoyed the laugh they had over the tale.
